Vending Ordinance & The Shores - S. Hadley

Review of the City's new vending ordinance it's terms and dates of enforcement

Waiting for CA Coastal Commission (CCC) approval for some items.

Enforcement will start 6/22/22, with 44 new code enforcement officers for

San Diego. However, that will not include areas under CCC review. Parts of ordinance will apply regardless of CCC such as grass areas, handicap rules, etc.

See website for the new code listed items that are enforceable now with highlighted ones awaiting CCC approval.

ACTION ITEMS

Shores Outside Dining Status - P. Wise

City and CCC status on Outside Dining & insurance coverage

Learned current permits can not be extended after July 17.

TOBO needs to be obtained, along with application for Spaces and Places. But it requires the center of the street to be open, so pull back tables. Also the engineering requirements are expensive.

MOTION: That the La Jolla Shores Association write a letter to the California Coastal Commission expressing its full agreement with Councilman Joe LaCava's June 2, 2022 letter to the commission regarding the City of San Diego's "Spaces as Places" ordinance, as it applies to the Avenida de la Playa's 2100 block and its outdoor promenade, and further that outdoor dining there become a permanent feature of the La Jolla Shores.

Moved by – Phil Wise 2nd – Dede Donovan

Vote – 12-0-1

MOTION: That on July 1, 2022, the La Jolla Shores Association will bind the insurance for the General Liability Policy for Shores Outside Dining, with the written approval of the La Jolla Shores Business Association

Moved by – Janie Emerson 2nd – Chuck Merriman

Vote – 12-0-1

Committee Reports:

Beach Fires Ad Hoc Committee – Andi Andrae –

In July meeting the Public Information Officer of the San Diego Air Pollution Control Board will have a presentation regarding air pollution.

Environment Committee of the San Diego City Council on May 26 discussed and supported proposed amendment to City Code regarding beach fires.

Now city attorney drafting formal wording.

La Jolla Shores Business District - Terry Kraszewski –

Preparing for summer business

Friends of La Jolla Shores - Mary Munk – not attend

Pottery Canyon – Claudia Baranowski

Met with Canyonlands and have received proposal for Phase 2 cleanup. This includes deadwood removal and restoration planting. Total cost $25K. LJSAs needs to raise $20K by Nov 1st this year.

MOTION: Claudia Baranowski to create Ad Hoc fund raising committee and bring suggestions to LJSAs meeting.

Moved by – Ross Rudolph
Vote – 12-0-1

2nd – Brian Earley

Shores Outside Dining – Phil Wise

Need to make presentation to Spaces and Places, which will be expensive. So will be doing a fund raising effort.

Traffic & Transportation – Ross Rudolph – No meeting last month

Land Use:

LJSPDO, LJSPRC & LJCBA – J. Shannon

LJSPRC not meet last month

Nothing from Shores on LJCBA agenda

Trash Can at Bus Stop Saga – Brian Earley

Trash can at bus stop on north side of La Jolla Shores Dr at Ave de la Playa was not emptied for 6 years. Through Brian's efforts over the past few months with MTS, Park and Rec, and the City, a responsible agency has now been found, trash can replaced, and pickups started.

Meeting Adjourned at 7:50 pm.
